

Legal Implications and Resources to Assist Community Healthcare Planning Efforts

Satellite Conference and Live Webcast

Tuesday, February 15, 2011, 12:00-1:30 p.m. (Central Time)
1:00-2:30 p.m. (Eastern) 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. (Mountain) 10:00-11:30 a.m. (Pacific)

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

1. Describe pandemic and all-hazards planning and why it is important for communities to prepare.
2. Discuss the lessons learned from the H1N1 Alabama response.
3. Discuss the role of government in implementing the CDC community social distancing standards for mitigating pandemic influenza.
4. Discuss the practical limitations of enforcing social distancing.
5. Describe resources available for all-hazards and pandemic planning efforts.

Program faculty will broadly examine the role of government in implementing the Center for Disease Control and Prevention's community social distancing standards for mitigating pandemic influenza. It will specifically discuss the practical limitations of enforcing social distancing and the authority and legal framework upon which enforcement may be based. The Alabama response to H1N1 and resources available to assist communities in healthcare planning efforts will also be discussed.
