

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS 2015 ALABAMA NEWBORN SCREENING CONFERENCE A TIMELINE OF SCREENING IN ALABAMA

SEPTEMBER 18, 2015 • PRATTVILLE MARRIOTT CONFERENCE CENTER

Alabama is celebrating its 50th year of newborn screening. The focus of this year's conference is on the history and timeline of newborn screening in Alabama. The keynote speaker is Dr. Harvey Levy who was awarded the Robert Guthrie Award in 1997 for his outstanding contribution to the field of newborn screening. One of the first babies diagnosed with PKU in the state will present his story. There will be various newborn screening topics to include perspectives from affected families, the importance of routine second screening, best specimen collection practices, the current state of newborn screening, and a discussion of appropriate hearing screening and evaluation.

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

The conference fee is $30.00 and includes all materials and sessions as well as a hot breakfast and hot lunch buffet. In addition, contact hours for nurses and social workers have been requested. Approval is pending. The target audience includes nurses, social workers, lab technicians, and other health care professionals who are interested in the health and well being of newborns across Alabama. To register, call 251-405-9930 or visit <http://www.southalabama.edu/colleges/scesp/cce/alnewbornscreeningconference.html>.
