Checklist 4–6. Needs Assessment for Crisis and Emergency Risk Communication

	Planning, research, training, and evaluation
Yes	No
		Does your organization have an emergency response/crisis communication operational plan for public information and media, partner, and stakeholder relations?
Yes	No	No If yes, does the plan have the following elements:
		☐ Designated line and staff responsibilities for the public information team
		Information verification and clearance/approval procedures
		Agreements on information release authorities (who releases what/when/how)
		Regional and local media contact list (including after-hours news desks)
		Procedures to coordinate with the public health organization response teams
		Designated spokespersons for public health issues in an emergency
		Public health organization emergency response team after-hours contact numbers
		Contact numbers for emergency information partners (e.g., Governor's public affairs officer, local FBI public information special agent in charge, local or regional department of agriculture or veterinarian public information officers, Red Cross and other nongovernment organizations)
		Agreements/procedures to join the joint information center of the emergency operations center (if activated)
		Procedures to secure needed resources (space, equipment, people) to operate the public information operation during a public health emergency 24 hours a day/7 days a week, if needed
		Identified vehicles of information dissemination during a crisis to public, stakeholders, partners (e.g., e-mail listservs, broadcast fax, door-to-door leaflets, press releases)
Yes	No
		Have you coordinated your planning with the community or state emergency operation center?
		Have you coordinated your planning with other response organizations or competitors?
		Have designated spokespersons received media training and risk communication training?
		Do they understand emergency crisis/risk communication principles to build trust and credibility?
Message and audiences
	The following are types of incidents (disasters) that could require intense public information and media and partner communication responses:
_
_	Waterborne (e.g., Cryptosporidiosis)
_
_
_
ā	Natural	atural disasters
_		nknown infectious agent (international) with potential to spread to U.S.
_	Known infectious agent (international) with potential to spread to U.S.
_
_	Township word
	☐ Biological (suspected or declared) ☐ Chemical public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An emessages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic		_	diological

Laboratory incident with laboratory worker Laboratory incident/felease of material in community Death of employee/contractor/visitor while on campus Hostage event with/by employee/contractor on campus Bomb threat Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages dupilic health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (flight or flight)? And messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public O/As Resource factsheet for media/public/p	_ [_	·
Laboratory incident/release of material in community Death of employee/contractor/visitor while on campus Hostage event with/by employee/contractor on campus Bomb threat Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages dup public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An essages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of your organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) P		-	-
Death of employee/contractor/visitor while on campus Hostage event with/by employee/contractor on campus Bomb threat Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal communi border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages du public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (flight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe tonstraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials in needed? Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic	_
Hostage event with/by employee/contractor on campus Bomb threat Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages dupublic health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic	_		·
Bomb threat Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages dure public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (flight or flight)? An exposibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic	_	_
Explosion/fire—destruction of property Violent death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages due public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Pather Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic	_
You will death of an employee/contractor or visitor on campus Yes No Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages durpublic health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe treatments, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of your organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic	_	- _
Yes No □ Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages durpublic health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? □ Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? □ Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? □ Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? □ Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe tronstraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? □ Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of	_	_
Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal community border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages durpublic health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			5. A COMPTO JOS COM TOTAL CONTROL OF CONTROL border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages dur public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory illness, unvaccinated seniors)? Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updated solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe the constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of your organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			Have you identified special populations (e.g., elderly, first language other than English, Tribal communities solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency? Have you identified all stakeholder organizations or populations (groups or organizations that your organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An enessages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic		J	border populations)? List any specific sub-populations that need to be targeted with specific messages during a public health emergency related to your organization (e.g., Tribal nations, persons with chronic respiratory organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication of a public health-related emergency? Have you planned ways to reach people according to their reactions to the incident (fight or flight)? An enessages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			Have you identified your organization's partners who should receive direct information and updates (not solely through the media) from your organization during a public health emergency?
messages, messengers, and methods of delivery sensitive to all types of audiences in your area of responsibility? Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe to constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			organization believes have an active interest in monitoring activities—to whom you are most directly accountable, other than official chain of command) who you believe should receive direct communication during constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of you organization (include cross clearance)? Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback. Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sou of these materials if needed? Yes No Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) Public Q/As Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			Are there mechanisms/resources in place to create messages for the media and public under severe time constraints, including methods to clear these messages within the emergency response operations of your organization (include cross clearance)?
Yes No □ Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) □ Public Q/As □ Partner Q/As □ Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information □ Web access and links to information on the topic			Identify how you will perform media evaluation, content analysis, and public information call analysis in real time during an emergency to ensure adequate audience feedback.
□ Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.) □ Public Q/As □ Partner Q/As □ Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information □ Web access and links to information on the topic	Have you developed topic-specific precrisis materials for identified public health emergency issues, or identified sources of these materials if needed?
□ □ Public Q/As □ □ Partner Q/As □ □ Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information □ □ Web access and links to information on the topic	Yes	No
Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			Topic factsheet (e.g., description of the disease, public health threat, treatment, etc.)
Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information Web access and links to information on the topic			Public Q/As
☐ ☐ Web access and links to information on the topic			Partner Q/As Resource factsheet for media/public/partners to obtain additional information
			Web access and links to information on the topic
☐ Recommendations for affected populations			Recommendations for affected populations
□ □ Background beta video (B-roll) for media use on the topic			Background beta video (B-roll) for media use on the topic
List of subject matter experts outside your organization that would be effective validators to public/media regarding your activities during a public health emergency.

	Messenger
Yes	No
		Have you identified public health spokespersons for media and public appearances during an emergency? Identify persons to act as spokespersons for multiple audiences (e.g., media spokesperson, community meeting speaker, etc.) and formats about public health issues during an emergency and ensure that their communication roles and responsibilities are understood and incorporated into their expected duties during the crisis.
		Methods of delivery (information dissemination) and resources
Yes	No
		Does your organization have go kits for public information officers who may have to abandon their normal place of operation during a public health emergency or join a JIC? If yes, does the kit include:
		A computer(s) capable of linking to the Internet/e-mail
		A CD-ROM or disks containing the elements of the crisis communication plan (including media, public health, and organization contact lists, partner contact lists; information materials, etc.)
		A cell phone or satellite phone, pager, wireless e-mail, etc.
		A funding mechanism (credit card, etc.) that can be used to purchase operational resources as needed
		Manuals and background information necessary to provide needed information to the public and media
		Care and comfort items for the public information operations staff
		Have you identified the mechanisms that are or should be in place to ensure multiple channels of communication to multiple audiences during a public health emergency? If yes, do they include:
		Media channels (print, TV, radio, Web)
		Web sites
		Phone banks
		Town hall meetings
		Listserv e-mail
		Broadcast fax
		Letters by mail
		Subscription newsletters
		Submissions to partner newsletters
		Regular or special partner conference calls
		Door-to-door canvassing
		Are contracts/agreements in place to post information to broadcast fax or e-mail systems?
	Have locations for press conferences been designated and resourced?
Have you identified employees, contractors, fellows, interns currently working for you or available to you in an emergency, that have skills in the following areas:
		Public affairs specialist
		Health communication specialist

		Communication officer
		Health education specialist
		Training specialist
		Vriter/editor
		Fechnical writer/editor
		Audio/visual specialist
		nternet/Web design specialist
		Others who contribute to public/provider information
		Personnel
	you ide ding ba	tified who will provide the following expertise or execute th kup)?	ese activities during a public health emergency
Yes	No
		Command and control:
		Directs the work related to the release of information to
		Activates the plan, based on careful assessment of the by media, partners, and the public	situation and the expected demands for information
		Coordinates with horizontal communication partners, a consistent and within the scope of the organization's re
		Provides updates to organization's director, EOC complan	-
		Advises the director and chain of command regarding in organization's role in the response	nformation to be released, based on the
		Ensures that risk communication principles are employ information release efforts	ed in all contact with media, public, and partner
		Advises incident-specific policy, science, and situation
		Reviews and approves materials for release to media,	•
		 Obtains required clearance of materials for release to r not previously cleared 	nedia on policy or sensitive topic-related information
		Determines the operational hours/days, and reassesse	s throughout the emergency response
		Ensures resources are available (human, technical, an	d mechanical supplies)
Yes	No
		Media:
	_	Assesses media needs and organizes mechanisms to briefings in person, versus a Web site update)	fulfill media needs during the crisis (e.g., daily
		Triages the response to media requests and inquiries
		Ensures that media inquiries are addressed as approp	riate
		Supports spokespersons
		Develops and maintains media contact lists and call log
		Produces and distributes media advisories and press r
		Produces and distributes materials (e.g., factsheets, B-Oversees media monitoring systems and reports (e.g.,	•
		Oversees media monitoring systems and reports (e.g., needed messages, determining what misinformation no and needs arising from the crisis and the response)
		Ensures that risk communication principles to build true messages delivered through the media	st and credibility are incorporated into all public
		Acts as member of the joint information center of the figure Serves as liaison from the organization to the JIC and

Yes	No
		Direct public information:
7	_	Manages the mechanisms to respond to public requests for information directly from the organization by telephone, in writing or by e-mail
		Oversees public information monitoring systems and reports (e.g., analyzing environment and trends to determine needed messages, determining what misinformation needs to be corrected, identifying concerns, interests, and needs arising from the crisis and the response)
		Activates or participates in the telephone information line
		Activates or participates in the public e-mail response system
		Activates or participates in the public correspondence response system
		Organizes and manage emergency response Web sites and Web pages
		Establishes and maintain links to other emergency response Web sites
Yes	No
		Partner/stakeholder information:
		 Establishes communication protocols based on prearranged agreements with identified partners and stakeholders
		Arranges regular partner briefings and updates
		Solicits feedback and responds to partner information requests and inquiries
		Oversees partner/stakeholder monitoring systems and reports (e.g., analyzing environment and trends to determine needed messages, determining what misinformation needs to be corrected, identifying concerns, interests, and needs arising from the crisis and the response)
		 Helps organize and facilitate official meetings to provide information and receive input from partners or stakeholders
		Develops and maintain lists and call logs of legislators and special interest groups
		Responds to legislator/special interest groups requests and inquiries
Yes	No
		Content and material for public health emergencies:
		 Develops and establishes mechanisms to rapidly receive information from the EOC regarding the public health emergency
		Translates EOC situation reports and meeting notes into information appropriate for public and partner needs
		☐ Works with subject matter experts to create situation-specific factsheets, Q/As, and updates
		Compiles information on possible public health emergency topics for release when needed
		Tests messages and materials for cultural and language requirements of special populations
		Receives input from other communication team members regarding content and message needs ☐ Uses analysis from media, public and partner monitoring systems, and reports (e.g., environmental and trend analysis to determine needed messages, what misinformation need to be corrected, identify concerns, interests and needs arising from the crisis and the response) to identify additional content requirements and materials development
		Lists contracts/cooperative agreements/consultants currently available to support emergency public/private information dissemination
		Suggestions to consider about resources
Yes	No
		Space:
		You need space to operate your communication teams outside the EOC. You need a place to bring media on site (separate from the EOC).
		You need a quiet space to quickly train spokespersons.
		You need space for team meetings.
		You need space for equipment, exclusive for your use. You cannot stand in line for the copier when media deadlines loom.

Yes	No
		Contracts and memoranda of agreement:
		Consider a contract with a media newswire.
		Consider a contract with a radio newswire.
		Consider a contract for writers or public relations personnel who can augment your staff.
		Consider a contract for administrative support.
		Consider a phone system/contractor to supply a phone menu that directs type of caller and level of information desired:
		General information about the threat
		Tip line, listing particular actions people can take to protect themselves
		Reassurance/counseling
		Referral information for health care/medical facility workers
		Referral information for epidemiologists or others to report cases
		☐ Lab/treatment protocols
		Managers looking for policy statements for employees
Yes	No
		Equipment:
_	J	Fax machine (number that's pre-programmed for broadcast fax releases to media and partners)
		Web site capability 24/7. Attempt to have new information posted within 2 hours (some say within 10 minutes).
		Computers (on LAN with e-mail listservs designated for partners and media)
		Laptop computers
		Printers for every computer
		Copier (and backup)
		Tables—lots of tables
		Cell phones/pagers/personal data devices and e-mail readers
		Visible calendars, flow charts, bulletin boards, easels
		Designated personal message board
		Small refrigerator
		Paper
		Color copier
		A/V equipment Portable microphones
		Portable microphones Podium
		TVs with cable hookup
		□ VHS VCR
		CD-ROM
		Paper shredder
Yes	No
		Supplies
		☐ Copier toner
		Printer ink
		☐ Paper
		☐ Pens
		☐ Markers
		☐ Highlighters
		☐ Erasable markers
		Overnight mail supplies

	☐ Sticky notes
	Tape (be creative)
	■ Notebooks
	Poster board
	Standard press kit folders
	 Organized B-roll in beta format (keep VHS copies around for meetings)
	☐ Formatted computer disks
	Color-coded everything (folders, inks, etc.)
	 Baskets (to contain items you're not ready to throw away)
	Organizers to support your clearance and release system
	Expandable folders (with alphabet or days of the month)
	Staplers (lots of them)
	Paper punch
	☐ Three-ring binders
	Organization's press kit or its logo on a sticker
	□ Colored copier paper (for door-to-door flyers)
	Paper clips (all sizes)